STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Throughout Lent there will be Stations of the Cross here in the church on Fridays at 7.00pm.

Safeguarding Meeting 16th March and 6th April

The safeguarding team at Cathedral House has issued guidance and advice to ensure that parishes in the Archdiocese are meeting the CSSA safeguarding national standards. To ensure that we are meeting the standards, we have received information forms for volunteers to complete. The majority of us will just need to give names and addresses and those will be kept securely in the Parish Office. These will be for readers, flower arrangers, cleaners, wardens, Mass money collectors, keyholders etc. Some volunteers will need to provide further information but not be required to undergo a full DBS check. These volunteers include Eucharistic Ministers and Sacristans, however, some volunteers, such as Altar Servers, Children's Liturgy Volunteers and Choir Leaders will need to undergo a full DBS check. There will be a meeting in the Parish Centre after Mass on Sunday 16th March, for all volunteers in our Parish. For those that cannot attend that meeting, there will be another on Sunday 6th April. The forms will be available and I will be there, together with Fr Kevin, to answer any questions. If neither of these dates are suitable, please let me know and we will arrange a convenient time with you.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS THIS COMING WEEK THE FOLLOWING PARISHIONERS WHO ARE CURRENTLY ILL OR HOUSEBOUND:

Talitha McConville, Taylor Roberts, Grace Ward, Margaret Sutton, Baby Sadie, Ruth Needham, John Swan, Thomas Conlon, Noel McCarthy, Jim Moore, Pauline Davies, Mary Moran.

ANNIVERSARIES OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED 16th - 22nd March

Albert Smith, May Meaham - 16th; Sylvia Herraty, Owen Mawby - 17th; Gertrude Coates - 19th; Annie McBride, John McCann - 20th; Carrie Twist, Iris Simms - 21st; David Adderley, Nina Briddick - 22nd.

MAY THEY ALL REST IN PEACE
